

Minnesota Film Premiere & Filmmaker Discussion

Sunday, April 19, 2009

Bell Auditorium, University of Minnesota
10 Church Street SE, Minneapolis

Light refreshments will be served!

The 2008 documentary Bi the Way intimately follows four young people (ages 15-29) in different parts of the country and tests the water of our country's tolerance for and concept of bisexuality. What does the word bisexual really mean? Can any label on sexuality really describe a person? Featuring interviews with the makers of The OC, Ani Di-Franco, Dan Savage, Angelina Jolie, Alan Cumming, teens, politicians and activists.

11:30 am Community Recognition Award
(Bisexual Organizing Project)

12:00 pm Bi The Way Film Screening

1:30 pm Q&A Discussion with Film
Director Josephine Decker

2:30pm Conference Closing and Acknowledgements

Free and open to the public!

(Seats will be reserved for people attending the BECAUSE Conference)

Hosted by:

BECAUSE '09

Cosponsored by:

GLBTA

Programs Office

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

www.becauseconference.org

www.glbta.umn.edu